RECOMMENDATION OF THE SECURITIES INVESTOR PROTECTION CORPORATION
IN SUPPORT OF SIXTH APPLICATION OF TRUSTEE AND COUNSEL FOR INTERIM COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES

Irving H. Picard, Esquire, as trustee ("Trustee") for the substantively consolidated liquidation proceeding of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC ("BLMIS" or "Debtor") and Bernard L. Madoff (“Madoff”), and the law firm of Baker & Hostetler LLP (“B&H” or “Counsel”), his counsel in this proceeding under the Securities Investor Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. section 78aaa et seq. (“SIPA”), have filed their sixth application (“Application”) for allowance of interim compensation. Pursuant to section 5(b)(5)(C) of SIPA, 15 U.S.C. §78eee(b)(5)(C), SIPC submits this recommendation in support of the Application. The grounds for this recommendation are as follows:

1. The Application involves the period from October 1, 2010 through January 31, 2011 (“Compensation Period”). As detailed in the Application, the Trustee and B&H rendered substantial services to the administration of the estate during this time. The liquidation proceeding has progressed to a point where the Trustee has reviewed and issued determinations for almost all of the filed customer claims. The completion of administration will require B&H to assist the Trustee in (1) continuing with the marshaling and distribution of the assets of the estate; and (2) dealing with such other matters as they may be called upon to resolve.

2. SIPC, by its staff, has carefully evaluated the Application for compensation. This has included analyzing the detailed reports of time spent and services rendered as set forth in the Application and the exhibits thereto, together with a review of pleadings and correspondence in this case. The detailed reports of services reflect a total of 954.8 hours and 116,398.50 hours respectively expended by the Trustee and B&H in the performance of their duties. In reviewing the Application, SIPC considered the requirements and standards for an Application set forth in 15 U.S.C. §78eee(b)(5); the relevant sections of the Bankruptcy Code; the Administrative Order re Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals in Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases; and the Order Pursuant to Section 78eee(b)(5) of SIPA, Sections 105, 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a) and Local Bankruptcy Rule 2016-1

Establishing Procedures Governing Interim Monthly Compensation of Trustee and Baker & Hostetler LLP, dated February 25, 2009 and amended on December 17, 2009 ("the Amended Monthly Compensation Procedures Order"). SIPC believes that the application substantially complies with the applicable law, this District's Administrative Order, and the Amended Monthly Compensation Procedures Order.

3. Based upon a discounted hourly rate of $747.59, the Trustee asserts the reasonable discounted value of his services is $713,799.00. The Trustee agreed with SIPC to discount his normal billing rate by 10%. The Trustee reports that this discount resulted in a voluntary reduction during this Compensation Period of $79,311.00. In addition, the Trustee wrote off or did not bill $139,107.50. The Trustee requests an interim allowance of 85% of the asserted discounted value of $713,799.00, or a total of $606,729.13, at this time. The Trustee also seeks reimbursement of $31.50 in expenses.

4. The Trustee also requests that the Amended Monthly Compensation Procedures Order be amended further and that the holdback of Trustee's fees be reduced from 15% to 10%, retroactive to the commencement of the liquidation proceeding and going forward, and that he be allowed and awarded $113,304.32 of the deferred portion of interim fees previously awarded by the Court.

5. Based upon an average discounted hourly rate of $370.94, B&H asserts the reasonable discounted value of its services is $43,177,049.10. B&H agreed with SIPC to discount its normal billing rates by 10%. B&H reports that this discount resulted in a voluntary reduction during this Compensation Period of $4,797,449.90. In addition, B&H voluntarily adjusted its fees by writing off $342,197.00 and wrote off expenses in the amount of $455,211.13. B&H requests an interim allowance of 85% of the asserted discounted value of $43,177,049.10 or a total of $36,700,491.74, at this time. B&H also seeks reimbursement of $1,103,196.25 in expenses.

6. B&H also requests that the Amended Monthly Compensation Procedures Order be amended further and that the holdback of B&H's fees be reduced from 15% to 10%, retroactive to the commencement of the liquidation proceeding and going forward, and that it be allowed and awarded $5,375,338.62 of the deferred portion of interim fees previously awarded by the Court.

7. Generally, SIPC has no objection to the allowance of such interim compensation as the Court may deem appropriate once the liquidation proceeding has progressed to a point where operational and significant work has been performed, and upon consideration of the potential hardship to the applicant. In this liquidation proceeding, the Trustee and Counsel have performed significant work in the claims and liquidation processes, and substantial progress has been achieved.

8. Section 5(b)(5)(A) of SIPA, 15 U.S.C. §78eee(b)(5)(A), provides that the Court shall "grant reasonable compensation for services rendered... by a trustee, and by the attorney for such a trustee, in connection with a liquidation proceeding." SIPA §5(b)(5)(C), 15 U.S.C. §78eee(b)(5)(C), sets forth the standard for the Court's determination of applications for allowances of compensation and reimbursement in SIPA cases. The section provides:

Whenever an application for allowances is filed pursuant to subparagraph (B), SIPC shall file its recommendation with respect to such allowances with the court prior to the hearing on such application and shall, if it so requests, be allowed reasonable time after such hearing within which to file a further recommendation. In any case in which such allowances are to be paid by SIPC without reasonable expectation of recoupment thereof as provided in this chapter and there is no difference between the amounts requested and the amounts recommended by SIPC, the court shall award the amounts recommended by SIPC. In determining the amount of allowances in all other cases, the court shall give due consideration to the nature, extent, and value of the services rendered, and shall place considerable reliance on the recommendation of SIPC. [emphasis added].

9. In a SIPA proceeding, administrative costs and expenses, which include trustee and counsel fees and expenses, are to be borne by the general estate. SIPA §5(b)(5)(E), 15 U.S.C. §78eee(b)(5)(E). To the extent the estate is not sufficient, SIPC advances funds for their payment. SIPA §§5(b)(5)(E), 6(e), and 9(b)(2), 15 U.S.C. §§ 78eee(b)(5)(E), 78fff(e), and 78fff-3(b)(2).

10. In this case, the Court has been advised that the Trustee has “no reasonable expectation that the general estate will be sufficient to make any distribution to general creditors or pay any administrative expenses.” (Sixth Application of Trustee and Baker and Hostetler LLP at 68, ¶196.) Thus, any allowances for fees and expenses of Trustee and Counsel will be paid by SIPC without any recoupment by SIPC. Furthermore, there is no difference between the amounts requested by Trustee and Counsel and the amounts recommended by SIPC. Consequently, SIPA provides that this Court shall award Trustee and Counsel the amounts recommended by SIPC.

11. Resolution of the matters set forth in paragraph 1 above will delay the completion of this proceeding. SIPC respectfully submits that an allowance of interim compensation is appropriate at this time in order to avoid undue hardship. An interim allowance does not involve a determination as to the actual reasonable value of the services in question. It is merely a payment on account of the final allowance and does not imply that the Court or SIPC has approved the value which Trustee and Counsel have placed on their services. The amounts sought do not exceed the sums the Court might reasonably award as final compensation for the services rendered. Accordingly, SIPC supports the Application.

WHEREFORE, SIPC respectfully recommends that the Amended Monthly Compensation Procedures Order be amended such that Trustee and B&H be permitted to be paid 90% of the asserted value of their services on a monthly basis, with the adjustment to be made retroactive to the commencement of the liquidation proceeding. SIPC also recommends that the Trustee and B&H, respectively, be allowed the following: 1) interim compensation in the amounts of $606,729.13 and $36,700,491.74, representing 85% of the asserted value of services for the compensation period; 2) interim compensation of $113,304.32 and $5,375,338.62, representing the payment of part of the deferred portion of interim fees awarded by the Court; and 3) reimbursement of $31.50 and $1,103,196.25 in expenses.
